THIRD. Student exchanges under this Agreement will be adjusted to the school calendar of each university and may have a duration of one semester or a full academic year, or a shorter duration when the academic program so requires, upon agreement between both universities.

FOURTH. Students selected for the exchange program may take courses at the host institution, as long as they correspond to the same level and/or are comparable to those taught at their home institution.

FIFTH. The home institution will submit the required documents of the selected students to the host institution for information and admittance purposes, on the deadline date indicated by the host institution.
