scientific, technological, and humanistic research; as well as to recover, preserve, increase and disseminate culture.

- III. That it is an attribution of Universidad de Guadalajara, in accordance with Article 6°, Section III of its Organic Law, to carry out teaching, research and cultural dissemination programs, pursuant to the principles and guidelines established in Article 3° of the Federal Constitution of the United Mexican States.
- IV. That the Rector General is the highest executive authority of Universidad de Guadalajara and its legal representative, in accordance with Article 32° of the Organic Law of the University.
- V. That the Secretary General is responsible for certifying acts and deeds under the terms of Article 40° of the Organic Law of the university.
- VI. That designates as responsible for the execution of this Agreement the holder of the Coordination of Internationalization, or person to whom delegates functions.
- VII. That it indicates as legal domicile the property located at Avenida Juárez 976, Colonia Centro, Postal Code 44100, in Guadalajara, Jalisco, Mexico.

CLAUSES

FIRST. The objective of this Agreement is to establish the basis for an exchange program for undergraduate and graduate students and academic personnel, between both universities, in the on-site and/or virtual modalities.

Undergraduate and Graduate Student Exchanges

SECOND. Each Party will select and nominate its students to participate in the exchange program, according to the procedures and requirements set forth by the host institution. The admittance of exchange students remains within the discretion of the host institution.

THIRD. Student exchanges under this Agreement will be adjusted to the school calendar of each university and may have a duration of one semester or a full academic year, or a shorter duration, when the academic program so requires, upon agreement between both universities.

FOURTH. Students selected for the exchange program may take courses at the host institution, as long as they correspond to the same level and/or are comparable to those taught at their home institution.

Handwritten signatures and initials: a blue checkmark, "CB", and "SH".

FIFTH. The home institution will submit the required documents of the selected students to the host institution for information and admittance purposes, on the deadline date indicated by the host institution.

SIXTH. Students participating in the exchange program will pay their own registration and tuition fees at their home institution. The host institution will not charge them for these items.

SEVENTH. Both universities agree to exchange, under this agreement, up to four (4) students per academic semester. Any adjustment on the disparity in the number of students shall be made the following year.

EIGHTH. After the final examination period and the exchange period, the host institution will send to the home institution a report with the grades obtained by each exchange student. The conversion of academic records will be subject to the regulations of each of the universities signatory to this Agreement. If requested, the host institution will provide course descriptions and curricula vitae of the professors with whom the exchange students have taken classes, as well as information on the institution's grading system.

NINTH. The students selected for the exchange will have the same rights and responsibilities, academic and administrative, that the receiving institution contemplates for its own students. Exchange students must abide by the laws and university regulations and may be subject to the sanctions contemplated in case of non-compliance with this section; in this case, the home institution must be informed. Exchange students will not obtain a degree from the receiving institution.

TENTH. Both institutions agree that it is the responsibility of the exchange students to carry out the immigration procedures to obtain the visa in their country of origin.

ELEVENTH. Exchange students will be responsible for all additional expenses of the exchange, including transportation, lodging, food and medical insurance.

TWELFTH. Each of the institutions of this Agreement will provide academic advising and counseling services to exchange students during their stay at the respective universities.

Academic Personnel Exchange

THIRTEENTH. Both institutions agree to review annually the number of the academic personnel sent and received.

FOURTEENTH. The institutions, to the extent of their capabilities, may support the academic personnel in exchange in obtaining resources to cover the costs of transportation, lodging, food and international medical insurance.

The institution sending academic personnel shall be responsible for covering their salaries.

FIFTEENTH. The academic personnel participating in this Agreement must carry out the procedures provided for in the regulations of their institution of origin, so that they may be authorized to be absent from their academic work during the time of their stay at the receiving institution.

SIXTEENTH. The academic personnel participating in this exchange program will be responsible for all additional expenses generated by the exchange, such as transportation, lodging, food and international medical insurance.

SEVENTEENTH. Both Parties agree that the academic personnel participating in this exchange program will maintain their employment relationship with their home institution.

EIGHTEENTH. The host institution will give the visiting academic personnel an official letter stating the activities performed at the host university, once the stay is concluded.

Common provisions

NINETEENTH. The academic extension programs of Universidad de Guadalajara and those offered by its Productive Entities, such as Colegio de Español y Cultura Mexicana and the Sistema Corporativo Proulex-Comlex, are not included in the present Agreement for the exchange of students and academic personnel.

TWENTIETH. The Parties agree to consider as confidential all information related to the activities of UDEG to which EBI has access, and vice versa, as a result of this Agreement and which is not public.

TWENTY-FIRST. This Agreement shall be valid for a period of five (5) years from the date of its joint signature. In the event of separate signatures, it shall come into effect from the date of the last signature. This Agreement may be renewed, modified or terminated if either Party so requests at least six (6) months in advance and in writing. Students or academic personnel members who have already been accepted by the Parties before the expiry of this Agreement or, as the case may be, its termination, shall not be affected and shall be allowed to complete their stay at the host institution.

TWENTY-SECOND. The Parties state that the signing of this Agreement and the commitments undertaken herein are the result of their good faith, and therefore they will take all necessary actions for its due compliance; in the event of any discrepancy in its interpretation, such discrepancy shall be resolved by mutual agreement.

Having read the present instrument, the Parties being aware of the content and scope of each of its clauses and indicating that there is no fraud, bad intentions, or any other reason that vitiates their consent, they sign it in duplicate, in Spanish and English, both versions with equal content and validity.
