THIRD. Student exchanges under this Agreement will be adjusted to the school calendar of each university and may have a duration of one semester or a full academic year, or a shorter duration when the academic program so requires, upon agreement between both universities.

FOURTH. Students selected for the exchange program may take courses at the host institution, as long as they correspond to the same level and/or are comparable to those taught at their home institution.

FIFTH. The home institution will submit the required documents of the selected students to the host institution for information and admittance purposes, on the deadline date indicated by the host institution.

SIXTH. Students participating in the exchange program will pay their own registration and tuition fees at their home institution. The host institution will not charge them for these items. NINTH. The students selected for the exchange will have the same rights and responsibilities, academic and administrative, that the receiving institution contemplates for its own students. Exchange students must abide by the laws and university regulations and may be subject to the sanctions contemplated in case of non-compliance with this section; in this case, the home institution must be informed. Exchange students will not obtain a degree from the receiving institution.

TENTH. Both institutions agree that it is the responsibility of the exchange students to carry out the immigration procedures to obtain the visa in their country of origin.
